Foreword

This year is gone. The ball games, the dances, the exams, the good times, and the bad, these too are gone. We cannot turn back time except when time is captured on a page. And this is what we have tried to do--capture on these pages the year as it unfolded. Years from now, we hope that you can look back at the 1964 Black Swan and see this year pass again.

"Now, Mr. Martin . . . "

Don't let the money fool you--it's really hard work!

Fall . . .

"Don't give me that Colgate smile, Massey, where's my helmet?"

During the fall, Seniors such as Karen and Ronnie spend many hours talking with Miss Hanlon, our guidance counselor.

Governor Sanford pays us a surprise visit.

Winter . . .

Bill's hustle pays off!

Everyone has worked hard this year for admission into the Southern Association, especially the steering committee, Mrs. McDaniels, Mr. Lytle, Mr. Huntley, Mr. Gallagher, Mrs. Leinster, Miss Hanlon, and Miss White.

Thanks Rodney, Leigh, Carolyn, Monty, Nancy, Alex, Richard, Terry, and all the many others who helped raise money for "No. 1."

Spring . . .

The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom--1963.

Miss McCall shows Martha and Anne the mysteries behind making their new spring outfits.

The end . . . and the beginning.

Fall is when.

it all begins . . .

Administration—the first to arrive

We wish to acknowledge our earnest appreciation to Mr. Fred H. Martin, our principal, for his able leadership and administration of students, faculty, recreation, and educational growth.

Mrs. Marie Davis
Secretary

The school committee, L. to R., J. Herbert Coman, vice-chairman; Mrs. Grover Ledbetter; Gordon Greenwood, chairman; Harry M. Noblett; and John A. Klutz, secretary.

Band

This year twelve members of the Band qualified for All-State Band Clinic and Workshop to be held at Cullowhee. The Band also attended Band Days at Cullowhee and Appalachian Colleges. As in years past, the Band always represents Owen High School at the Asheville Christmas Parade. The Christmas and Spring Concerts are also high on the list of activities in which the Band participates. The Band and majorettes spent many hard hours after school practicing for the excellent half-time shows at the football games. Special recognition goes to Mr. Richard Hipps, the Band director, for his wonderful work.

Basketball Cheerleaders

Our basketball cheerleaders are a group to be proud of. The boys, Bill Bumgarner, David Rozzell, Scotty Wagner, and Jim Frazier were inexperienced at the beginning of the season but they caught on fast. The boys are a new addition to the squad this year. Owen has never before had male cheerleaders. The girls are Barbara Boone, Sharon Magnant, Kathy Nesbitt, and Patricia Robertson. Barbara Howie is the head cheerleader.

A spirited yell for the winning Warhorses!

"And the score goes up another notch"

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a service-leadership organization. This year the Club helped a needy family for their Christmas project, sold tickets for the dinner to raise money for the Activity Bus, and sold tickets for the Hootenanny to raise money for the March of Dimes. Many members plan to attend the State Beta Club Convention in Raleigh on April 10-11.

The Future Business Leaders of America Club has as its main project this year assisting the teachers. Each teacher has assigned to her one student who does her typing. At Christmas the members helped a needy family. The club along with the Journalism class will print a Student Handbook. Several members of the club will attend the F. B. L. A. State Convention which will be held in Winston-Salem in April.

The Senior Class

In the fall of 1960, we, the Senior Class, entered Owen High School as bewildered Freshmen. But, as the difference faded between Black Mountain and Swannanoa students, we soon became a vital part of our school. During the past four years, we were always busy with sports, parties, and a lot of hard work, but now that it is over, it all seems too short. In the years to come, we will recall with pleasure and sentiment the many friends we have made. None of us will ever forget Owen, and we can only hope that Owen will remember us.

The Annual Staff has the responsibility of comprising the Black Swan. They have devoted many hours of their time in making this annual a cherished possession to the students of Charles D. Owen High School.

Dedication

For his quick wit and sense of humor,

For his warm personality,

For the confidence he has inspired in us during his four years at Owen and ours,

And for his abilities as a teacher and administrator,

We proudly dedicate the 1964 BLACK SWAN to Mr. Charles A. Lytle

Linda Lavender, Wanda Burch, Charlotte Ray, Linda Owenby, Donald Shuman, Terri Rozzell, Patricia Smith, Harry Hamil.

Chief Marshals:
Joyce Taylor, Anne Stubbs

Junior Marshals

The Junior Marshals are selected on the basis of a three year average of 94 and above. They are honored at the end of the school year by accompanying the Seniors to all Commencement exercises. The two Juniors having the highest averages are named as Chief Marshals.
